Dinosaurs on the run!

It was an ordinary day at Jurassic world. After the incident last year where the indominus rex escaped, Jurassic world has never been the same. Less people have come. The dinosaurs that are now in Jurassic world are the spinosaurus, Tyrannosaurus rex, velociraptor, triceratops and more.

Claire had been put in charge after Simon Masrani's death. Claire walked up to the raptors paddock to find Owen training Blue, Charlie, Delta and Echo.

"Blue, HEY! look at me! Stop. ... And go!" Owen said as he lifted his hand for the four raptors to chase the pig.

Claire walked up to Owen and told him that he needs to feed the raptors and make them stop chasing the pig. Owen told Hoskins to open the small door to get the pig out of the cage. So Owen fed the raptors. Then Claire walked off with Owen and they went to see if the other dinosaurs have escaped because they don't want any to escape like the indominus rex escaped last year.

So Owen and Claire went into the control room to see if the dinosaurs are still in the cages.

Owen said "there still in the cages but they look hungry so ask the people to feed them".

"OK, OK I will " replied Claire.

So Claire had to tell all the people it had to shut into Monday it was now Saturday so they get a day off.

It was the morning so she phoned owen and said that she is seeing her nephews Zach and Grey and if he wanted come.

"I would love to come and see the boys again I shall be at yours in 5 minutes" said Owen.
